Brevard Rescue Mission Inc., which seeks to break the cycle of homelessness in the county, has announced that Beth Evander has joined its board of directors. She is a Florida Supreme Court Certified Family Mediator. Her active work as a community volunteer has been primarily focused in the public schools and her church-based Preschool Ministry team. Evander's experiences and knowledge will help support the continued growth and development of Brevard Rescue Mission, said Stacia Glavas, the president and chief executive officer of organization. Brevard Rescue Mission provides homeless women with children housing, access to health care, transportation, education, nutrition, job training and life skills in a "safe, Christ-centered residential setting." The 12- to 24-month program is designed to transform families from dependency to self-sufficiency through daily accountability, personal responsibility and goal advancement.
